July 16, 2024

National Guard Helicopter Expected at MHMMC Portland

On Wednesday, July 17, the Maine Army National Guard will be utilizing MaineHealth Maine Medical Center Portland’s Sister’s Heliport for training operations.

These operations may include several approaches and departures at the heliport by a Blackhawk helicopter. This training is in support of the Guard’s medevac role with the upcoming Great State of Maine Air Show.

For more information on the Sisters Heliport, click here.