

What is home health?

Home health care provides medical and therapeutic services to patients in their own homes – whether that’s an assisted living facility or private residence. It helps individuals maintain independence in a safe, comfortable environment.

Who’s eligible?

At MaineHealth CHANS Home Health & Hospice, we provide home health care for people living with a chronic health condition or recovering from surgery, illness, or injury. All services must be prescribed by a health care professional.

Home health services include:

- Adult and pediatric nursing / home health aide
- Adult and pediatric therapy services — physical, occupational and speech
- IV therapy and infusion care
- Wound and ostomy care

Backed by MaineHealth

With more than 27,000 care team members, MaineHealth connects patients to the region’s best and brightest health care professionals. We’re on a mission to build the healthiest communities in America through high-quality, affordable care for all.

MaineHealth CHANS Home Health & Hospice is a fully licensed 501© (3) not-for-profit organization.

Great experience working with this team!
They all knew what they needed to do and knew when it was time for me to fly solo.
Would recommend anytime!
