Milk helps babies grow healthy and strong.

Feed your baby only human milk or formula for their first 6 months of life.

Continue feeding with human milk during their first year and beyond, if possible.

Use iron-fortified formula for the first year if you can’t use human milk.